Nicolet Foundation's Run to Remember/Family Fun Day Sept. 21 to honor Kory Dahlvig

The Nicolet College Foundation will hold the Run to Remember and Family Fun Day fundraiser Saturday, Sept 21, to raise money for scholarship in honor of Kory Dahlvig, a Nicolet graduate and former Vilas County sheriff's deputy who lost his life in an on-duty traffic accident.

The event on the Nicolet College Campus will feature a 5K run/walk with participants lining up at 9:45 a.m. and the race beginning at 10 a.m. The line-up for the half-mile children's event will take place at 10:45 a.m. and start at 11 a.m. The Northwoods Children's Museum will host free family fun activities from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Registration fee for the 5K is $25 before Aug. 24 and $30 after that date. The children's run/walk is free.

"Proceeds from the event will go to scholarship we've created to honor Kory and the service he provided to the Northwoods," said Heather Schallock, executive director of the Nicolet College Foundation.

To register, contact the Nicolet College Foundation at (715) 365-4518.

A Rhinelander High School graduate, Dahlvig received his Criminal Justice associate degree from Nicolet in 2003. Shortly thereafter he went to work for the Lac du Flambeau Tribal Police Department and Eagle River Police Department He joined the Vilas County Sheriff's Department in 2007.

He was killed in a traffic accident in 2010 while responding to a mutual aid request from the Lac du Flambeau Tribal Police Department.

Event sponsors include Eagle River Cabinets, Ministry Health Care, Northwoods Children's Museum, One Prospect Technologies, Wal-Mart, Newswatch 12, NRG Media, Rhinelander Auto Center, Aspirus Rhinelander Clinic, Superior Diesel, A-1 Septic, Aylesworth Dermatology, S.C., Beehive Hair Salon, Century 21 Pine Point Realty, Eye Clinic of Wisconsin, Home Depot, Rhinelander Honda, Shoeder's RV Marine & Sport Center, and Wisconsin Public Service.
